

Hynes Charter School
Hancock Whitney Wednesdays - Bank at School
Program
Hynes Library 8AM

Purpose: Hynes Charter School and Hancock Whitney Bank have are community partners who work together to promote financial literacy skills and teach students the art of saving their money. Each month, a local Hancock Whitney banker or bankers come to Hynes to individually meet with students who participate in the Bank at School Program to prepare their deposits. Basically, Hancock Whitney brings the bank to school.

Families who are interested in creating a bank account for their school-aged child are encouraged to reach out to the Harrison Avenue Branch to complete the paperwork.
