

Le monde francophone

Currently 300 million people speak French in the world.

By 2050, estimations make French the language the most spoken in the world.

In March, Les Amis de Hynes-UNO Committee, sold close to 120 crepes to raise money for the PTO and partly fund their long-term goal of an 8th G Field trip to a French speaking country open to all Hynes UNO Students.

The Francophone world celebrates its diverse culture, energetic creativity and strengthen its business connections every year in March – Hynes participates with its celebration Franco Fest.

Our world has been turned upside down for more than a year and it might feel like it has been reduced to a few friendly faces and places.

Thinking of a safer and brighter future, I just wanted to share with you some beautiful countries.

Here are a few links to discover the Francophone World.
