

Do you know of Archimedes' principle? You definitely know his famous "Eureka!" (I have found it!) exclamation which he shouted to celebrate a discovery. It's time for you to exclaim "Eureka!" because we will soon add a new "Eureka Resources" tab to our website (www.hynesschool.com). Henceforth, you will find Kindergarten through 8th grade math resources, such as videos and tips, to help with homework. Be sure to check it out!
