

7th and 8th graders were invited to participate in a Creative Writing workshop on Prose Poetry. This optional three-week event was hosted by Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Andy Young, a Creative Writing instructor from NOCCA. This event was limited to seventeen students that will continue to meet on the next two Fridays from 3 to 4 pm. The students read prose poems and were then given the opportunity to start on their own poems to share with the group.
