

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

TEEN EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

Oral Histories

We're celebrating Black History Month by encouraging teens to talk to someone in their lives—a grandparent, teacher, neighbor, etc.—and fill out a brief interview form. Teens can return the form to any library location and receive a giveaway book and a $5 fine waiver.

- All New Orleans Public Libraries
- Pick up interview forms at any New Orleans Public Library and return them all month long for prizes.

Black History Month Silent Disco

Pick from three eras of African American music in celebration of Black History Month! Hear the channel of your choosing in your own set of wireless headphones.

- Main Library
Saturday, February 2, 2-4 pm
- Norman Mayer Library
Thursday February 21, 5-8 pm

Black History Month Jeopardy

Now entering the studio are the teens of the New Orleans Public Library competing for prizes based on their knowledge of Black History!

- Nora Navra Library
Thursday, February 7, 4:30-6 pm
- Algiers Regional Library
Tuesday, February 12, 4:30-6 pm

Other activities...

Bookmark contest at MLK Library. Visit the branch for details!

- Martin Luther King Library
February 1-14, ages 0-18.

Unless otherwise specified these events are for teens ages 12-17.

For questions about programs at individual branches, please contact the host branch.

