

Notes from Nurse Wendy:

Welcome back! It is officially spring, and that means that pollen content is high! Pollen can trigger allergies and seasonal asthma. Parents, please remember to send appropriate medications if your child struggles with seasonal asthma and/or allergies. As always, remember to follow our medication protocol. Let's stay happy and healthy the rest of this school year!