

Ivy Daniels Act

Student Information Sheet Grades 6–8

Protecting Our Students

Every student deserves a safe place to learn. Louisiana law makes it a serious crime to create, possess, share, or sell improper images of another person.

What is an improper video or still image?

- A picture or video of a minor engaged in sexual conduct.
- A picture or video of a minor or adult person totally nude or with private parts exposed.

The following acts are against the law, and people who commit them may face criminal charges:

- Creating or possessing any kind of material that shows a minor engaging in sexual conduct.
- Possessing or sharing a video or picture created by artificial intelligence that depicts a person under the age of 17 either totally nude or with exposed private areas of the person.
- Sexting, including possessing or sharing any video or picture created by artificial intelligence that shows another person who is either totally nude or who is in a state of undress as to expose private areas of the person.

What Can Happen If a Person Violates This Law?

If someone creates, has, shares, or sells materials as described above:

- Law enforcement may investigate.
- Students may be disciplined by the school.
- Students may be suspended or expelled.
- Juvenile court action may occur.
- Mental health evaluations may be required.
- Parents may be fined or held financially responsible.

Remember:

- Creating, possessing, and distributing improper images in any manner, including by social media, even as a joke, can lead to serious consequences and criminal charges.
- Every reported incident must be investigated.
- If you are aware of this kind of incident, report it immediately to a trusted adult.

If You See Something, Say Something.

Report concerns to:

- A teacher
- School administrator
- School counselor
- School resource officer
- Trusted adult

Working together helps keep everyone safe.
